

Opportunities in Singapore

We are currently working with a number of the international law firms in Singapore to help them to grow their practices. If you are a Singapore qualified lawyer and keen to find out more about the opportunities in international law firms please call us for a confidential discussion.

Our clients are particularly keen to see the following profiles:

- Partner level M&A lawyers (public company specialists)
- Senior disputes practitioners keen to lead a practice
- Senior technology specialists
- Junior banking & finance lawyers
- Junior corporate/commercial (media)

At ATR Associates our consultative approach helps candidates to make the right career choices. We take great care to ensure that a career is not compromised for the sake of our commission and all our discussions are held in the strictest confidence.

We are a boutique legal recruitment business with over 9 years of experience in Singapore and the region. For more information about our business and the available opportunities please contact:
